HEAD COACH NOTES

Good afternoon, all, and welcome to Home Park, for our FA Women's National League Southern Premier Division fixture against Ipswich Town.

We extend a welcome to the players, staff, officials and supporters of Ipswich Town to the Theatre of Greens today.

In what has been an extremely busy week schedule for all involved with our Women's side at Argyle, we are excited to be back at Home Park for this afternoon's game against the travelling Ipswich.

These last few weeks have been tough and hectic, but with progression in the cup, we are still believing our performances will turn into points soon in the league, though we are aware of the task against a strong Tractor Girls side.

Although Wednesday evening's game against Exeter was a disappointing result, the showcase of Women's football and backing from supporters was something we are all immensely proud of. We have been delighted with the support from the Green Army, home and away, all season and share our thanks for coming along and getting behind the girls after some tough results.

We've had two short turnarounds in the last week, with games against Lewes, away from home, and Exeter on Wednesday, but with training and preparations, we are ready to give it our all.

For those who are back here at Home Park, we're so glad to welcome you back and thank you for your support. As for those who are here for the first time, welcome! It's great to have you along, and make sure you get behind the girls and cheer throughout the 90 minutes!

Enjoy the game,
Ryan

Argyle Women lost their first Devon Derby of the season, falling 3-0 to Exeter City at Home Park on Wednesday night.

City took the lead just before 15 minutes, with Sophie Gillies running onto a ball inside the area. She still had plenty to do but smashed into the roof of the net from a narrow angle.

Exeter, buoyed by the goal, spent the next 15 minutes or so on top, without notably creating many chances. That changed, however, when former Pilgrim Amber Pollock was fouled in the area, trying to latch onto a loose ball, and a penalty was given. Sarah Stacey stepped up, drove home the spot-kick, and City had a cushion.

Argyle's best hope looked to be when they could get Charlotte Whitmore running in behind, and from one such occasion, the Argyle forward was able to tee up Georgia Wilson, who hit the target from distance, only to find the gloves of Abbi Bond. >>

>> Exeter went in 2-0 up at half-time, but Argyle came out strongly in the second half. Katie Dickson had two chances for the Greens, one from seemingly nowhere, when she took aim from range and was not far wide. Then, she got a toe to a partially cleared ball, and the effort went just over.

It was now one-way traffic, and perhaps the best opportunity came when the lively Ella Stephens whipped in an excellent delivery to find Sara, whose deft header beat the goalkeeper but found the roof of the net.

Moments later, Whitmore turned in midfield and released Roxy Thomas, only just on as a substitute, racing down the left. Her low ball across the centre was centimetres too far in front on the oncoming Sara, and the chance was lost.

City brought on defender Toogood in the final minutes, and her first act was to come forward for a corner, and head home to truly seal the game for the visitors.

IPSWICH TOWN

The only undefeated team in the league travels to Home Park on Sunday. Ipswich Town have been a mainstay at the top of the FA Women's National League Southern Premier Division in recent seasons and have continued the expected form in the opening months of the 2024/25 campaign.

The Tractor Girls missed out on promotion in 2022/23 on goal difference, with Watford securing the top spot, but have placed in the top four since joining the league in 2021.

Joe Sheehan's side have started the season in fine form, with four wins and two draws in six league games, dropping points to only Exeter City and Watford. Scoring goals has come easy to Ipswich in their victories, with 11 goals scored over two wins against Lewes and Billericay Town.

On the attacking side of the pitch, Town's Isabella Fisher is one of note. The 17-year-old has been called up to the England Under-17 squad for their FIFA Women's World Cup in the Dominican Republic later in October, but will not feature against Argyle due to travel timings.

Forward Sophie Peskett has been a key factor in Ipswich's success on the pitch, scoring seven goals in six games, with Angela Addison and Ella Rutherford adding a combined five league goals so far this year.

Last season, the side announced that they would play their first-ever game at Portman Road. With all four stands open for ticket sales, 10,173 fans attended the 5-0 victory over Chatham Town in March 2024.

Argyle's home and away league fixtures ended in defeat last campaign, with a 3-1 loss at home and a 7-1 loss in Suffolk. Georgie Knott scored the Greens' only goal at Coach Road, with Rebecca Dandridge finding the back of the net away from home.
